Defect Fixes

Able to reject Connect documents that have already been rejection resolved or filed

Case 23709823 | Internal reference D10-12324

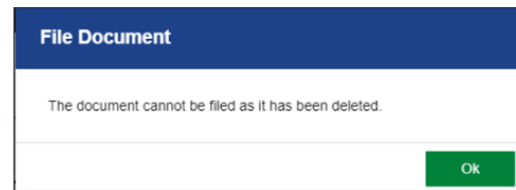

Description

If user has multiple Docman 10 tabs open for the same document, it is possible to a) reject a Connect document in one tab and the Connect Sender to resolve the rejection, but the document to be rejected from the second tab; and b) to file a document in one tab and reject it from the second tab. This change will display an error message in each scenario, preventing an action being taken on a document which has already been done.

Error when rejecting a document that was previously rejected, then marked as Rejection Resolved:

Error when attempting to file a document that is set t Rejected or Rejection Resolved:

Document Lock Issues

Case 23310243 | Internal reference D10-9473

Description

1. It is possible to lock one document per Filing Folder - this is triggered by navigating to a document in a folder, then navigating to another folder and repeating this process.
2. It is possible to load the Actions pane for Document A over the top of Document B - this can result in the Delete function being available for an EDT document. It is also possible to Reject a different document to what is being previewed a clinical risk has been raised for these

NSS Autofiling - Posting a DocumentReference files to "Capture & Filing" screen erroneously

Internal reference D10-12506

Description

Reported issue: Posting a DocumentReference that contains a folder, contains a description, and contains the Docman 10 patient ID within the subject reference, does not file directly to the folder within the patient record and instead files into the batch manager 'Capture and Filing' screen.

Docman GP engineering team are unable to replicate this, so agreed to add extra logging to attempt to capture more details and isolate the reported issue.

Kind Regards, The Docman GP Team
